

The Linwood Trees

edited and published by:

Gretchen Waggoner Long and Janet Balliett Waggoner

125 years ago, Linwood was a grove of trees. Although cottages were built where the trees once stood, within each cottage grows a new tree, a family tree.

For 125 years the roots and branches intertwined with other Linwood families, both renters and owners, creating the Linwood we know today.

We've dug down to the roots of the Linwood trees, compiling the unique stories that belong to each cottage. Get to know Linwood better than ever. Order your copy of "The Linwood Trees" during the 2008 summer season. A limited number of books will be printed based on 2008 sales.

Submit your story: We're still barking up the trees!

Write about it: Send your stories and pictures before September 10, 2008 (final deadline – or else there won't be enough time to finish the book!). E-mail linwoodtreesbook@yahoo.com or mail to Linwood Trees Book Project, 7373 Frasier Road, Westerville, OH 43082

Talk about it: Porch Chat with Mary Jo O'Neill

Mary Jo O'Neill has generously offered her porch for digitally recorded interviews after 8 p.m. Stop by the O'Neill cottage at 5155 7th Street (or call 440.967.5253) and make an appointment to have your story recorded for the editors (schedule will be posted). Not sure what to say? Don't worry, Mary Jo can ask the questions.

"If what I say resonates with you, it is merely because we are both branches on the same tree." - W. B. Yeats
